Bid for Town Community Center Awarded

At a special Town Commission meeting on December 15, 2009, the Surfside Town Commission unanimously voted to select the firm of West Construction to be the general contractor for the new Community Center and Aquatic Facility.

After scaling down the original plan to a one-story facility that will allow for future expansion and a month-long bid process, West Construction was selected as the lowest, most responsible and responsive bidder. The total cost of the project will be $5 million which will be taken from Town reserves. There is no tax increase.

The vote of the Town Commission authorizes the Town Manager and Town Attorney to negotiate a contract with West Construction. The Town Commission will have the opportunity to approve the contract at a future meeting. It is estimated that the project will be completed before 2011.

Holiday Happenings

Business District Hosts Holiday Music Event

The Surfside Business Association (SBA) and HSBC sponsored a Holiday Musical Event on December 9. It included the Second Arriving of Santa Claus in the downtown district the fabulous choir from Ruth K. Broad Bay Harbor Elementary. The choir strolled down Harding Avenue and treated the shoppers with the sweet sounds of the holiday season. Choir members extended warm wishes for a happy Hanukkah, happy Kwanza, merry Christmas and feliz Navidad.

The event was organized by former Surfside Mayor and current Business Association President, Eli Tourgeman. "There were many individuals and departments that contributed to the success of the event," he said. "Santa joined these wonderful kids who brought their joyful spirit of the season to the Surfside Community." Mr. Tourgeman would like to thank:

- All the Surfside merchants for the warm welcome they gave to the kids and for their generous donations in support of the choral group
- Music Teacher, Abigail Rubin for a terrific job
- All the kids from Ruth K. Broad Bay Harbor Elementary K-8 for their wonderful voices and enthusiasm

- Rafael Borrero for providing refreshments
- Ruben Coto, Barbara Cohen and Duncan Tavares for helping Santa and the kids.

On the Police Beat

Officer Ted Arboleda Excels at Traffic Stops

Officer Ted Arboleda is a leader in patrol productivity for the Surfside Police Department. In November, he compiled 14 arrests and 74 traffic citations and took dangerous criminals off the street.

On a recent traffic stop, he discovered that the driver of a vehicle was an active gang member of the Latin Kings and found many weapons in the car including knives, bats and a sword. On another traffic stop, Officer Arboleda discovered a concealed weapon and a large bag of marijuana.

He arrested the subject and search incidental to the arrest revealed another large bag of marijuana in the trunk. Congratulations to Officer Arboleda!

Officer Max Moreno Fights Crime, Delivers Baby

When Surfside Police responded to a call of a vehicle burglary in progress at a parking lot they found no vehicle or person. Officer Max Moreno learned the address was actually in Miami Beach and the burglar was still at the scene. Officer Moreno went to the location to assist Miami Beach officers and quickly apprehended the suspect and recovered the property.

On another call, Officer Moreno went to a Collins Avenue address where a woman was in labor. Officer Moreno helped to deliver a healthy newborn boy. He cleaned and covered the baby and placed him in the mother's arms. He monitored the child and mother until Fire Rescue arrived. Max is commended for using his training and remaining calm during a frantic event and for his compassion and caring for the mother and new baby.

Associates Lourdes Aleman, Wayne Baenen, Nancy Covington, Patricia Hines, Beverly Major, Julio Ruiz, Sharon Sam and Janet Tylutki-Berg. Sales Service Associate Supervisor E. Lorraine Jimenez also received a certificate.

THE YEAR IN REVIEW - 2009 in the Business District

The Business District managed to thrive despite the challenging economic times and continued to evolve with the support of our elected officials, the Surfside Tourist Bureau and the management of the Town. New restaurants and a café have been added to the culinary delights, offering eclectic and casual fare. From family cooking to exotic, you will find it in Town.

This was the third successful year of the Surfside Art Festival, which featured new vendors and new works of art. It also attracted a fresh audience to the downtown district. Once again, the now famous "Parents Hunt for Art" was held in cooperation with Ruth K. Broad Bay Harbor Elementary School. The art students and parents were awarded prizes donated by the Business District.

Dining al-fresco remained a favorite pastime for residents and visitors. The sidewalks were given a new life with a major cleaning and landscaping. The area around The Greek Place and Stone Grill 95 featured a changing garden of shrubs and flowers, highlighting the improvements in the downtown landscaping.

The business district joined the residential area in a recycling program. Now that the beach walking path and hard pack area has been restored with fresh sand, the walkers and joggers are back and spilling over into the business district for refreshments. Moonlight MADDness, a program offered by Mothers Against Drunk Driving in conjunction with the Surf-Bal-Bay Police Departments and Ruth K. Broad Bay Harbor Elementary, brought over 1,000 people to our area.

In an effort to promote Surfside, the great shops and restaurants in the downtown district are participating in 3rd Thursdays in Surfside, a monthly evening program featuring music, special menus, networking and fun for the entire town. If you have not yet joined our 3rd Thursday gatherings, get your family members together and experience the Surfside Business District.

SURFSIDE EMPLOYEES HOLIDAY FUND

We wish to acknowledge everyone who so generously contributed to the 2009 Holiday Fund, and extend our sincerest gratitude to the Surfside Civic Association President, Julia Magnani, and members Barbara McLaughlin and Barbara Cohen for their tireless efforts on our behalf.

We thank you for making our holiday even brighter!
